From the desk of Gayle Bibby-Crème

Thank you for 5 wonderful years at Playhouse Square!

When I arrived my primary goal was to raise our level of guest experience to everyone who came through our doors. I feel we have accomplished many of those goals. We have had so many improvements and constantly receive compliments from our guests about how much they enjoy the time they spend with us.

I have had the pleasure of meeting many of you during that time and the RedCoats are the face of Playhouse Square every time we have a performance. You are all very special and I continue to marvel at your passion and commitment and I thank you for allowing me to be a part of a great group of volunteers!

I wish you all the best in the future and will take many fond memories with me into retirement. My last day is January 31.

RedCoat Backstage Tour

Join us this Monday, January 27th we will host an evening tour exclusively for RedCoats. Our Tour Guides will show you areas of the theaters that are not accessible to guests. There will be some overlap from last year's tour but there will also be new, unseen spaces to explore! Join us after your tour for hot cocoa and cookies in the lobby and listen to the organ on the Connor Palace stage!

Divorciadas, Evangélicas, y Vegetarianas

Divorcees, Evangelists and Vegetarians (Divorciadas, Evangélicas y Vegetarianas) three women, each at a crossroads in their lives, face their demons and societies expectations with a little bit of irony. Divorcees, Evangelist and Vegetarians is a theatrical presentation in Spanish (with English supertitles projected on screen), from LatinUs Theater Company.

Gloria, a self-centered vegetarian; Beatriz, a resentful divorcee; and Meche, an existential evangelical explores themes of love, maternity, work, and religion. Under the direction of Kivin Bauzo, three local Latina actresses will address the pressures women face to behave in a certain way. Divorcees, Evangelist and Vegetarians has played to audiences across the U.S. and Europe and remains ever so prominent in this era of feminism revival.

Performed in Spanish with live English supertitles.

We would love to have a Spanish speaking volunteer at these performances if anyone is available!
