Parking at US Bank Garage

There has been recent concern regarding parking at the US Bank Garage. Please rest assured that there are still enough spaces for everyone. They are changing the way they have everyone park to ensure that it goes smoothly. Please listen to where the attendant asks you to park on that particular night. They will have RedCoats park on levels 5, 6, and 7 where there are unreserved spots available.

Sensory Friendly

A Christmas Carol will host a sensory friendly performance on Wednesday, November 29 \(9:45am call\). Extra help would be appreciated if anyone is available!

Saturday Needs

If anyone is free on this Saturday, November 25th we are in great need of extra RedCoats for the evening, especially at Wicked with a 6pm check-in. Extra help would be greatly appreciated!
