Hamilton Extras

Thank you all for submitting your requests to work extra Hamilton performances this past week! We are processing all the requests and will be emailing everyone in the next week to confirm all of your assignments (both scheduled and extras) so expect an email from us for each performance you will be working.

After looking at our initial numbers, we believe we will have room for those who would like to extra more performances and we will be letting you know which performances still have room in the future. Keep an eye on these weekly emails and schedules for updates on availability.
