Hamilton Update

I cannot thank you all enough for an incredible first week of Hamilton! Everything has been going smoothly and we're so grateful for all of the RedCoats making this happen. The guests have been wonderful as well, it is great to see such an excited audience!

Our own Head Usher, Don Fedorchak gave a lovely summary on Facebook that I though others of you would enjoy reading, "There has been so much hype about "Hamilton", I was afraid that the hype would exceed the reality. Well, just the opposite was true when I saw "Hamilton" last night as a guest. It is truly one of the best performances that I have seen in my life. For me it was like an opera and ballet all in one. The lighting of the show was unbelievable and the set was amazing. God has blessed us all for the talent of Lin-Manuel Miranda to the American art form."

We are still in need of more RedCoats for much of the Hamilton run. We have listed some of the upcoming needs in the left column, most of our low performances are on weekends or the last two weeks of the run.

Silent Disco – help needed!

Playhouse Square is seeking 2-4 volunteers to assist at the next Silent Disco party on Saturday, July 28 at 8:30pm.

Silent Disco is a dance party where everyone wears headphones so they can each choose the music and volume they prefer!

Help is needed passing out headphones and collecting ids from participants. Please sign up to help if you are able! Meet with Heather on the Plaza to work this event.
