RedCoat Satisfaction Survey

On Monday, everyone should have received an email with our yearly satisfaction survey. We would greatly appreciate it if you took a few moments to fill this out. We truly value your input because this is really the only time during the year that we can hear from everyone in the RedCoat group. We take the survey very seriously and do read through all of your responses.

Anonymous Survey

Please remember that this survey is anonymous. In past years RedCoats have asked for responses to their questions, but we are unable to identify who you are. If you have a question you would like answered, please email us directly.

Didn't Receive the Link?

If you did not receive the link to the survey, please email me at gina.glorioso-rendall@playhousesquare.org and I'll send it to you.

This survey closes on Sunday, August 26th

Thank you all for your participation!

Hamilton Update

Do not throw away your shot to see Hamilton one last time!

We have a week and a half left of performances before this revolutionary show leaves us. Email us to sign up for another performance!

We are so thankful for what incredible work each of you have done over the past month and a half working this show! It has truly been an incredible experience.

We still have room for RedCoats at any of the remaining performances, but have noted the lowest ones in the column to the left in case anyone is interested in coming down to help out.

Ticket Drawing

We will be offering a drawing for 12 pairs of Hello, Dolly! tickets for those that work the Saturday 8/25 evening performance of Hamilton. Click below to sign up!

Sunset Boulevard – Ticket Drawing!

A few more RedCoats are needed to help out at the showing of Sunset Boulevard for Cinema at the Square on Saturday, August 18th.

We will be offering a ticket drawing for Hello, Dolly! to those who works this performance. Click below to sign up!

STARS Deadline Reminder

We are excited to announce an expansion to our STARS (Students Taking a Role at the Square) student volunteering program!

This program, which previously was available to High School students, has now been expanded to include local college students as well! We are excited about this expansion as it will allow many of our graduating STARS to remain with us for a few more years, and will also give other local students a flexible path to volunteering with us.

Please look for the STARS at upcoming events this fall. If you have high school or college students in your life who is interested in volunteering with the RedCoats, please have them visit the following link for more information about this program.

Applications close this Friday, August 17th

Playbill Article on Ushers

Playbill has a great piece this week on a ushering called, Theater Jobs: What Does a Broadway Usher Do?

Follow the link below to learn more about what it is like to usher for a Broadway house in New York! I am sure many of you can share the joys and frustrations of ushering that she expresses!

The Dollop

History buff and comedian Dave Anthony was considering starting a new podcast in 2014. His idea was to write up an unknown story from American history and read it to a different comedian each week. Having not heard of the story before, Dave hoped the comedian's reaction would be hilarious. He gave it a go and his first guest was comedian Gareth Reynolds. They immediately clicked and fans flooded social media telling Dave to never change the co-host. And he didn't. Sticking to the formula of Dave reading Gareth a story he has never heard, The Dollop quickly shot up the charts. Fans of both comedy and history were drawn to the wildstories and quick improv skills of Gareth. With millions of downloads.
