Family Theatre Day

Family Theater Day is on Saturday, May 4th. That day, and the week leading up to it, we will have extra family-friendly shows for kids of all ages!

We are looking for extra volunteers to help out, especially at Jason Bishop: Straight Up Magic. We could currently use an additional 20-30 volunteers at each of his performances.

Please click the date and time links below if you're interested in helping out! If you click the show name it will take you to a description of the show.

Appreciation Month Gift

As a thank you to all of our volunteers, we will be handing out RedCoat Tumblers to everyone during the run of A Bronx Tale for all evening and weekend RedCoats. (They will also be handed out at 42nd Street performances for Weekday Matinee RedCoats).

As with last year's Appreciation Month Gift, these will only be available for pick up at those performances. We will be unable to reserve them for those who are not in attendance.

A Bronx Tale

Broadway's hit crowd-pleaser takes you to the stoops of the Bronx in the 1960s – where a young man is caught between the father he loves and the mob boss he'd love to be.

Bursting with high-energy dance numbers and original doo-wop tunes from Alan Menken (Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin), A BRONX TALE is an unforgettable story of loyalty and family.

Boss: The Black Experience in Business

Learn about the untold story of African American entrepreneurship, where skill, industriousness, ingenuity and sheer courage in the face of overwhelming odds provide the backbone of this nation's economic and social growth.
