Toukii: The Journey

Djapo Cultural Arts brings you an exhilarating Juneteenth Concert celebrating a decade long journey of culture, empowerment, struggle and triumph. This full-length marvel gives viewers a delectable taste of Africa and the African Diaspora with histrionic travels through Senegal, Mali, Ghana, Guinea, Cuba and the United States highlighting Djapo's dynamic dance company, area performers and international artists from each region.

Choreographed by Artistic Director, Talise Campbell alongside the Fiery Musical Direction of Grammy Nominated Percussionist and Djembefola, Weedie Braimah, this highly anticipated production is compelled to take you on an exciting and challenging journey while interlacing folkloric dance, explosive drumming, song and poetry.

Dance USA

Cleveland and Playhouse Square are hosting the Dance/USA Annual Conference this year!

"The Annual Conference travels to a different city each year, highlighting the unique vibrancy of dance communities around the nation. These varied locales offer new inspiration and showcase the host city's arts and dance ecosystem."

There will be a number of meetings and events happening here, and we invite you to help out if you're interested!
