Dance USA

Cleveland and Playhouse Square are hosting the Dance/USA Annual Conference this year! The Annual Conference travels to a different city each year, highlighting the unique vibrancy of dance communities around the nation. These varied locales offer new inspiration and showcase the host city's arts and dance ecosystem."

We are in need of RedCoats for a number of spaces during their time here. If you're available to help, please click the link or contact redcoats@playhousesquare.org

Rhea Butcher

Rhea Butcher is a Los Angeles-based standup comic, actor and writer. Originally from the Midwest, Rhea grew up skateboarding the mean streets of Akron Ohio

Her blue collar brand of cool has endeared audiences nationwide, as she's performed standup and appeared on shows such as HBO's 2 DOPE QUEENS, The Meltdown with Jonah and Kumail, @Midnight and Conan. Rhea's first television series, "Take My Wife" premiered as a critical hit and was reviewed by Vanity Fair, The New York Times, Vulture, IndieWire and countless other outlets. Rhea was a recurring performer on the TruTv series "Adam Ruins Everything," and continues to tour the country. Her debut standup album, "Butcher" debuted at number one on iTunes, and she was also named one of Variety's Top Ten Comics To Watch 2017 at the Just For Laughs Festival.
