➤ From the desk of Gina, Volunteer Manager

SURPRISE! It's Newsletter Week! We announced last week in the Update that we would be delaying the Newsletter to the 20th in order to include the special announcement from the Appreciation Event.

We have decided instead to send out an additional message next week about the announcement. Please check your inboxes for two emails next Wednesday!

Final Call - Volunteer Appreciation Event

If you are planning on attending the Appreciation Event next Tuesday:

Please RSVP by THURSDAY, February 14th

One guest per volunteer is welcome, please submit their name with your RSVP to redcoats@playhousesquare.org or click the link below.

Over Capacity!!!

This is a reminder that when we have reached the maximum number of RedCoats we can accept at a performance, the schedule will list a Check-Back Date. This is in replacement of the previous "No Extras" system.

If you come in as an extra for a show that lists a Check-Back, you may be turned away or, if you are permitted to work, you will not be given credit for your volunteer hours.

If you are interested in working a show that is FULL, please email redcoats@playhousesquare.org on the date listed to see if anyone has cancelled leaving openings for us to move you into.

We do our best to find room for anyone that would like to work a show, but we do have limitations dependent on the capacity we are allowed to have at each show. Thank you for your flexibility as we work to find a system that works for everyone.

Paw Patrol

It's that time of year again! We are in great need of RedCoats to help guide some of our littlest guests to their seats to see the team of pups from Paw Patrol save the day. Paw Patrol is with us for the weekend of March 8-10th. We have not yet received run-times, but it will be a brief show, likely around an hour.

If you are available, we would greatly appreciate help at any or all of the performances!

Extras Greatly Needed: DOUBLE HOURS for these three performances

Mayumana: Currents

'Currents' is a spectacular show that was inspired by the historical Battle of Currents between Thomas Edison and Nikola Tesla in their quest for finding energy sources for the world. Audience members will be taken on a journey between two troops, each representing a different view of the essence of light and electricity and each inspired by a different esthetic and artistic approach, all of which are presented as a dialogue, through unique sounds, lights, and visual effects. The show combines a variety of elements: specially made musical instruments, massive video art projections including video mapping on the walls of the Old City of Jerusalem and eleven skilled performers in constant movement, playing on different instruments and musically juggling between different sounds.

This is an added performance and we are offering DOUBLE HOURS to RedCoats who are available to help!

Vertigo Dance

We are in need of extras to staff the added Vertigo Dance event in the Ohio Theatre. Please click the link below if you are able to help, we've included a description of the performance below!

Vertigo Dance - SA E 3/9 6pm

One of Israel's most highly regarded contemporary dance companies; Vertigo takes the viewer on an exciting and challenging journey into unfamiliar territories with every performance. The company strives to bring people closer together and touch them through the language of the body and movement, which can be felt from their powerful performances. The March performance of Vertigo Dance Company at Playhouse Square will feature, their new work "One. One & One" and features the artists dancing among soil scattered on the stage, giving the audience a full sensory experience.

Meateater: Under the Hood

Join host Steven Rinella and producer Janis "The Latvian Eagle" Putelis as they share their favorite MeatEater clips and tell the full stories behind getting charged by grizzlies, stricken by weird diseases, run over by moose, and other crazy experiences that were never captured on film.
