STAR Award Criteria

Consider nominating your fellow RedCoats for a STAR award for exceptional service. These are located in the Volunteer Room rack, and can be turned in to a House Manager. STAR Awards should be for exceptional service where someone went above and beyond what was expected. Please write specific details of what occurred and not a general statement that the person did something well.

Thank you RedCoats for an outstanding job during the sold out four week run of The Lion King! Your efforts along with the House Managers, made it a huge success for Playhouse Square and an amazing experience for our guests. As you are aware with actors in the aisles, multiple holds and nearly 3,000 cast staffers for every performance, it is one of most challenging shows we present but you absolutely delivered on all fronts. Not only was there overwhelming positive feedback from our guests but the show left here very happy saying they are always glad when Playhouse Square is on their schedule because of how friendly and professional everyone is and that we get it right. Those comments mirror what I frequently hear from other shows that present here and we could not have attained such an outstanding reputation in an industry with the highest of standards without your dedication and support. Be very proud of your contribution here. Your efforts are recognized and valued far beyond the walls of these historic theaters. Well done team and thank you again for making Playhouse Square a premier destination for our guests and shows. – Ed Broderick
