GREAT LAKES THEATER

Did you see Great Lakes Theater's Facebook post?

"This past week at the Annual Broadway League Spring Road Conference, actor John Lithgow spoke about the importance of regional theater in our country and gave a gracious shout out to Great Lakes Theater along the way! John Lithgow's father, Arthur Lithgow, was our founding Artistic Director back in 1962. As we are heading into our 65th anniversary season, we are continuously grateful for Arthur's work in establishing our company and for John Lithgow to continue to speak about that legacy."

SUMMER SCHEDULE

We wanted to give you plenty of notice to plan your vacation – entertain out-of-town guests – relax on the beach – visit museums – go to a ball game – play golf, tennis, or pickle ball – go swimming, hiking, or fishing – whatever your ideal summer day looks like!

From July 1st through July 7th, there are NO performances on the calendar. From July 8th through August 16th, there are limited shows on the calendar. Most teams may only be scheduled once a month during the summer. Enjoy the time off – rest, relax, and gear up for a fabulous 2026-2027 season starting with Death Becomes Her in September!
