THEATRE ETIQUETTE

Theater etiquette rules are not just about being polite to your fellow theatre-goers, it is also about the safety of those on stage.

This is live theatre – not a movie – the actors on stage can see and hear you. Even whispers can carry to the stage, distracting not only those around you, but also the performers.

Please be sure to hold any conversations in the lobby.

WESTFIELD STUDIO THEATRE (WST)

We've had a lot of questions recently about where the WST is located.

Page 44 of the Volunteer Handbook:

The Playhouse Square Community Engagement and Education Departments program the spaces at Idea Center, including the Westfield Studio Theatre and the Gund Dance Studio.

Westfield Studio Theatre (WST) is a short walk from the Euclid Avenue entrance. Once you enter Idea Center, pass to the left of the first elevator and walk straight back. The Gund Dance Studio can be seen from the sidewalk on Euclid Avenue.

PARKING

We've also received a lot of questions regarding parking recently.

Page 16 of the Volunteer Handbook:

Free Parking is available in the Cohen & Company Center Garage (2060 East 14th St. – directly across from the Hanna Theatre) for all weekend performances and weekdays after 4:00 pm. Parking is available beginning at 4:00 pm. You must park on levels 5 and above.

The monthly QR Code is sent the same day as the monthly newsletter. You will receive the QR Code for August today. Let us know as soon as possible if you do not receive it.

Weekday Matinee Parking

If you are working a weekday matinee (call time M-F before 4:00 pm) you may park on levels 4 and above of the Playhouse Square Garage (1450 Chester Ave. at E. 15th St). Regular weekday matinee ushers will be issued a unique QR code for the Playhouse Square Garage. Extras should pull a ticket on entry and will be given a validation sticker at the sign-in table in the theater.
