Hello fellow RedCoats! Broadway season is almost here! The Prom starts November 2nd! After the incredible job everyone did with The Lion King, I know we are ready to get up and “dance” at The Prom! We continue to add new ushers to our Playhouse Square family. We welcomed 113 new RedCoats in September who completed their theater training these past few weeks. This past Saturday, another 72 ushers joined us for orientation and will be completing their theater training during the upcoming weeks. Please welcome them to our RedCoat family! We are rebuilding our team! I know many teams have been over-scheduled and new ushers will help boost our teams and give some relief to the over-scheduling. A huge thanks to all of you who have picked up extras – you have truly have been the backbone of our strong return! We couldn't do it without you!

RedCoat Attendance

We are still experiencing a 15-20% no show rate – so remember, if you indicated you wanted to be activated and have submitted your vaccine information, you are on the schedule. We are expecting you and missing you! Remember, each no show is reflected in your attendance percentage. Please also consider being an extra for one of the shows that needs help. This will also factor into your attendance percentage.

Did you know, we have several ushers whose attendance percentage is over 200%?? We are considering issuing them sleeping bags and cots! What an incredible accomplishment!

MASKS REQUIRED

Masks are required in all theater spaces and hallways.
Staff, volunteers, and guests must wear a mask.

GUEST EVACUATION TRAINING

All RedCoats must complete GET this season.
