Wheelchairs

To clarify our wheelchair policy:

- RedCoats should not assist guests in or out of the car, theater seat, or in the restroom.
- Curbside in front of the theater is the only drop off point.
- RedCoats should not go to the garage or other locations to assist guests
- Wheelchairs may not leave the premises.
- Companions are may push PSQ wheelchairs
- You may push a guest's private wheelchair, if asked
- Guests may remain in private wheelchairs during performances

Most guests are attending with able bodied companions. We are asking the companions to push the wheelchairs and take the chairs to the back of the theater before the performance starts. This allows the companion to access the wheelchairs at intermission and at the end of the show. Use your best judgement - if the companion also has mobility issues, more assistance can be given.

Playhouse Square has been bursting with energy, shows, excited guests and incredible RedCoats over the last couple of weeks - especially this past weekend where we had 7 theaters up and running! You are without a doubt a SUPER TEAM! We could not have done it without you and the guest feedback about your service is stellar! Whether you are a veteran usher or a trainee - you made it happen!! Thank you, thank you, thank you for representing Playhouse Square in such a professional and positive manner!

GUEST EVACUATION TRAINING
