'Tis the season for fans of Platinum-selling recording artist Brett Eldredge, who has just announced the return of his annual Glow LIVE holiday tour. A beloved Christmas-time tradition, the 14-date-run will make stops in major cities across the country, including back-to-back nights in New York City, Boston and Chicago. Eldredge is set to kick off the Glow LIVE Tour 2022 with a three-night-residency at Nashville's historic Ryman Auditorium, inviting fans far and wide to join him on the third night via livestream.

Beginning as a single live Christmas show in Nashville, the critically acclaimed tour was inspired by Eldredge's celebrated 2016 Christmas album, Glow. The timeless LP arrived at No. 2 on the country charts upon release and featured the Billboard Adult Contemporary and Holiday Music Chart-topping duet "Baby, It's Cold Outside (feat. Meghan Trainor)." Named to "Best of..." holiday albums lists by People, Entertainment Weekly and The Tennessean, it was followed by his latest yuletide release, Mr. Christmas.

ABOUT BRETT ELDRIDGE:

In a genre defined by the credo “three chords and the truth,” Warner Music Nashville recording artist Brett Eldredge set a new bar with his current album, Songs About You. Candid in its approach and backed by an uncluttered, minimalistic soundscape, each of the 12 co-written songs finds the celebrated vocalist getting raw and unfiltered in a way rarely attempted in country music – or anywhere else. Eldredge has been engaged in one of country’s most transformative evolutions since the 2020 release of his critically acclaimed fourth studio record, Sunday Drive, when he began consciously pushing beyond clever, rom-com country anthems. His most recent holiday album, Mr. Christmas, followed his highly celebrated debut Christmas album, Glow. In 2016, the project inspired a single live show in Nashville, which has now grown into the annual Glow LIVE holiday tour, returning to major cities across the country later this year. With seven country radio No. 1’s, nine Gold and Platinum-certified singles, two Gold-certified albums and multiple CMA, ACM and CMT Music nominations and wins, the critically acclaimed entertainer regularly fills arenas nationwide with his powerhouse vocals and electrifying live performances.
