

Area Development Fact Sheet

Overview

Playhouse Square is a catalyst for economic growth for downtown Cleveland and the entire region, bringing businesses, residents and 1 million guests to the area every year. In an unprecedented move for a not-for-profit arts organization, Playhouse Square established a Real Estate Services Division in 1999 to support its arts operations. Playhouse Square is active in area development in order to give visitors a lively, welcoming and entertaining destination, while also creating a neighborhood with a robust business environment.
