Proclaimed a "national treasure" by the Los Angeles Times, GRAMMY® Award-winning singer, songwriter, producer and actor Anthony Hamilton has achieved global sales of more than 50 million albums. The North Carolina Music Hall of Fame inductee notably performed for Nelson Mandela,

President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama, and most recently President Joe Biden, cementing his place in the history books as the "narrator of love." Introduced by way of the iconic 2003 smash "Charlene," his raw, awe-inspiring performances garnered the attention of NPR, where he starred in their "Noteworthy" documentary series. He appeared in "American Gangster" and lent his voice to "Freedom" from the Academy® Award-nominated "Django Unchained." Hamilton sang the national anthem at the 2019 NBA All-Star Game in his hometown of Charlotte and released his 10th full-length studio album, "Love Is the New Black," amid all the racial injustices of George Floyd and the COVID-19 global pandemic.

Joining Hamilton will be powerhouse vocalist Leela James, whose raw, soulful delivery and commanding presence have made her one of the most dynamic voices in contemporary R&B. Known for fan favorites such as "Fall for You," "Music" and "Complicated," James brings a deeply emotional, blues-rooted sound that resonates with audiences worldwide.
